

Retro-Commissioning services offer owners some of the shortest return on investment times within the building industry

Systems that are eligible for Retro-Commissioning include:

OUR APPROACH

Investigation

Facilities Management Conference
Energy Auditing
Energy Profiling (Usage Analysis)
Utility Rate Structure Analysis
Maintenance Costing
Building System Performance Assessment

Data Analysis

Review information collected during investigative stages
Building Systems Failure / Analysis
Energy Conservation Measure Identification
Remedial or Upgrading Scope of work development

Plan Development & Implementation

Develop technical requirements of remedial work
Develop RCx schedule
Coordinate scope of work with SMA partner contractor
Perform recommended scope of work
Re-test systems
Develop testing records for performance validation

RCx Contracting Services

Rebalancing of mechanical, air and water systems
Re-Sequencing HVAC and lighting controls
Motor replacements or upgrades
Installation of mechanical and electrical metering devices

HVAC

Heating Steam

Power

Cogeneration

Lighting

Automation Systems

Plumbing

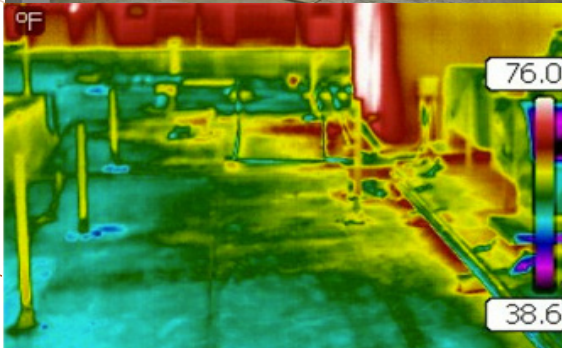

Building Envelopes

Compressed Air

Sustainable Tech

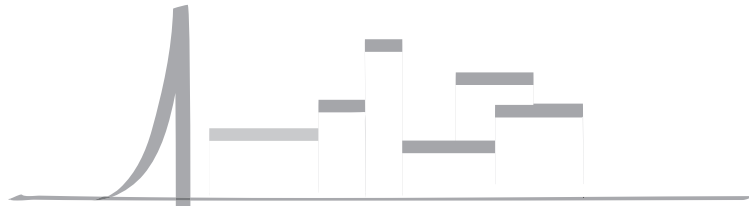

Process Steam

Data Centers

Retro-Commissioning is a unique service that returns your facility to optimum operating conditions and lowers your bottom line

RETRO
COMMISSIONING
FOR EXISTING BUILDINGS

TwinBridge
BUILDING SERVICES

2007 Highway 315
Suite 202
Pittston, Pa 18640
570.299.7520

Contact our team of engineers,
commissioning professionals, and energy
managers for your custom
Retro Commissioning Plan

